

Bubble Spring 2009: Pure Design for Established Collections - Part II

SES PETITES MAINS

Homebase: San Francisco, CA

DESIGNER: Beth Miles

Sizes: 12 months to 8 years; Wholesale prices: $17-$65

It's the contradictions I love about Miles' collections. There are no hard edges or severe details yet the look is undeniably modern. She uses neutrals to offset rich pastels and vivid red yet I wouldn't call her palette sweet, and she throws ruffles here and there without anything looking frilly.

Outstanding offering: The Gertie dress with its taffy colors, filmy layer over the twirl-worthy skirt and pretty, gently gathered neckline will make girls (and their parents) swoon.
