Fashion Find: Sweet Little Dresses for Sweet Little Girls

Category: Children's Fashion

What: Clothing by ses petites mains

Why: If you're tired of disposable clothing covered in brand names, this innocent, delightful, comfortable new line is for you. These beautiful pieces can be mixed and matched; they're designed so that your daughter may choose her own outfit and always come out looking like the sweet, special child that she is.

San Francisco mom/designer Beth Miles originally created the spirit of ses petit mains for her own daughter. From the darling knickers to the shirtwaist dresses, the soft colors, charming stripes and dainty dots encourage the natural beauty of your child to shine through and enable girls to dance and jump and move freely while looking incredibly adorable. Everything is cotton-based, and an eco-friendly practice of washing and lying flat to dry works perfectly with the fabrics.

Price: Starting at $32
